

Module of Management

Knowledge, Awareness

Bachelor within the scope of its competence will be able to:

1. To describe the organizational behavior principles; Recognition and explanation of the types of conflicts; Developing innovation management features and needs;
2. Explanation and description of basic tools of corporate management; Assessment of the peculiarities and basic elements of tax administration, explaining the principles of strategic management; description and explanation of tasks and goals of the mission, Explaining the importance of strategic alliances.

Use of knowledge in practice

Within the scope of its competences the Bachelor will be able to:

3. Assessment of the elements and models of organizational changes; Risk assessment and assessment of the insurance mechanism and regulation of financial instruments of the company.
4. Define basic approaches and characteristics of project management; Develop and demonstrate a practical project; Operational and strategic planning of human resources; Team formation, motivation and stimulation mechanisms.

Occupation Sphere

After completion of the educational program and after receiving the Bachelor's Degree, Bachelor of Business Administration in Management - Bachelor's work is carried out in the private and state sectors; Bachelor's professional activity sphere is the real sector of the economy. Banking system, business and entrepreneurship, participation in the organization of a commercial and non-commercial organization analysis; participation in the process of acceptance, planning, organizing, and making managing decisions. Bachelor can successfully carry out his work in national and international companies existing in Georgia, both in industrial and service sector joint ventures; in insurance companies, tourism department and agencies, take part in the management of the enterprises and their subdivisions, work as the "Manager" Manager Assistant, and other relevant positions.